Mission: At Autism Speaks, our goal is to change the future for all who struggle with an autism spectrum disorder. We are dedicated to funding global biomedical research into the causes, prevention, treatments and a possible cure for autism. We strive to raise public awareness about autism and its effects on individuals, families, and society: and we work to bring hope to all who deal with the hardships of this disorder. We are committed to raising the funds necessary to support these goals. Autism Speaks aims to bring the autism community together as one strong voice to urge the government and private sector to listen to our concerns and take action to address this urgent global health crisis. It is our firm belief that, working together, we will find the missing pieces of the puzzle.

These groups are run by and for the members, "experts" themselves. "You alone can do it - but you can't do it alone." The strength in joining in a group can help a person stabilize their situation and gain the energy needed to see to their current needs. Joining in a group can help gain a sense of well-being, and lead to self-awareness and give a sense of belonging. The purpose of this group is to create a community of grandfamilies and their kin to stay connected and involved with other grandfamilies in the area. To provide support and understanding of grandfamilies in need. This group will organize gatherings for social interaction such as play dates, camp-outs, annual gatherings and celebrations of member achievements, such as birthdays. The group will create a "one on one" support organization that will match a graduated grand with a grand in need of communication and support. The group will create a web-based page for communication, information and navigation such as a newsletter, referral to other organizations, Facebook or other social media and contact point for grandfamilies.
